X Jim and Ruth's emails need to be redacted; The two "agenda" attachments can be released; The two "response" attachments are deliberative but there may not be harm in releasing. HR As with other similar attachment, recommend comparing to the version that actually went to the Tribe before deciding. I think both of the response documents should be withheld HR REleased in folder "Curtin_Furtak_7_5_12_4"

Good catch, Ruth. Why don't you change it as follows:

In your email, you seek agreement to three "basic assumptions" before the meeting on July 24. Without more conversation with information from tribal representatives about these assumptions, we do not believe that will be possible. At the meeting, we would be happy to listen to discuss these assumptions with you at the meeting and would particularly welcome your thoughts on the following questions to provide us a better understanding of how they apply, in particular, to our review of this TMDL.

Jim--

I was a little confused by your edit indicating that we would be happy to discuss the the 3 assumptions posed by the Tribe. I had thought we discussed indicating that we would be willing to listen to the Tribe's own thoughts on those assumptions, but not that we'd have a discussion. I'm a little concerned about turning the meeting into a discussion of those assumptions, rather than listening to the Tribe's view on technical issues. It seems that by offering a discussion of these broad policy issues, it changes the scope of what we had agreed to originally.

Sarah - Here are my edits to both documents. Let me know if you have any questions. - Jim

Tod - Feel free to add anything you like to this letter and draft agenda for a meeting OW is having later this month with a tribe to hear what the tribe thinks about a Washington State TMDL and whether Region 10 should approve it. If you can get any edits to Sarah by mid-afternoon, she would appreciate it. She's trying to get it to the tribe today, if possible. Thanks. - Jim deliberative draft

Dear Jim & Felicia,

Attached below, please find a draft, deliberative response to Kalispel Tribe's email/request of June 29.

I will plan to share this with my Acting Branch Chief this afternoon, and then share it with Region 10 for a very quick review this afternoon prior to responding to Kalispel Tribe.

Your input by 2:30 pm Eastern would be most helpful in track changes format.

Thanks,

Sarah
